

Banco Halifax Hispania opens new branch in Ibiza

Monday 31st December 2007

Banco Halifax Hispania has opened a new branch in San Antonio, one of Ibiza's most popular resorts for British tourists.

The team of English and Spanish speaking colleagues based in San Antonio will provide British and Irish expatriates with help and guidance on all aspects of buying a second home in Spain. Banco Halifax Hispania offers competitive mortgages to customers, including Spanish nationals, as well as providing comprehensive personal banking services.

Jon Goodchild, from Banco Halifax Hispania said:

"The new branch in Ibiza means Banco Halifax Hispania will be more accessible to its customers in this popular expatriate area. We will continue to target the Spanish Islands to complement our successful mainland business.

Editors' Notes

- Banco Halifax Hispania was established in 1993 and offers a full telephone banking service. It has branches in Madrid, Barcelona, Málaga, Sevilla, Marbella, Fuengirola, Benalmádena, Torrevieja, Denia, Torrox, Los Alcázares, Calpe, Playa Flamenca, Mallorca, Guardamar, Sotogrande, Guadalmina, Mazarrón, Puerto Pollenca, Calahonda, Menorca, Fuerteventura, Tenerife and Ibiza.
- Banco Halifax Hispania offers variable and fixed rate mortgages in Euros, secured on the Spanish property.
- Loans are available for up to a maximum of 70% of the valuation of the property.
- The bank has a specialist customer service team based in the UK for those customers wishing to arrange their Spanish finance from the comfort of their UK home. The team can be contacted on 0845 600 3603. All dealings with British residents are conducted in English.