The Monthly CPR is then annualised using the formula: 1-(f1-Monthly CPR)*12).

Monthly PPR is equal to the total scheduled and unscheduled principal receipts, including the proceeds from loan repurchases by the Seller, received during the calculation period ended prior to a calculation date divided by the aggregate current balance of the loans comprised in the portfolio as at the start of the calculation period. The Monthly PPR is then annualised using the formula: 1-((1-Monthly PPR)*12).

Halifax Price Indexed Valuation	The latest valuation of the property, held in the Seller's records, increased or decreased, as appropriate, by the increase or decrease in the Halifax House Price Index since the date of that latest valuation. Indexation is applied quarterly to latest valuations, on a regional basis, in January, April, July and October of each year.
Indexed Valuation	(a) where the latest valuation of the property is equal to or greater than the Halifax Price Indexed Valuation, the Halifax Price Indexed Valuation; or (b) where the latest valuation of the property is less than the Halifax Price Indexed Valuation, the latest valuation plus 85% of the difference between the latest valuation and the Halifax Price Indexed Valuation.
