Bank of Scotland plc confirms that it continues to retain a material net economic interest of not less than 5 per cent in accordance with Article 6(1) and Article 6(3) of Regulation 2017/2402 (the "European Securitisation Regulation"). At the date of this report, Bank of Scotland plc retains a material net economic interest in the form of the transferor interest in the securitised exposures (Article 6(3) paragraph (b) of the European Securitisation Regulation). The current transferor interest is disclosed in the relevant section of this report.

For US Credit Risk Retention, Bank of Scotland, as the "sponsor" of the securitisation transactions, intends to satisfy its risk retention requirements by maintaining a "seller's interest" (as defined in the rules) equal to at least 5 per cent of the aggregate outstanding balance of the notes of all series. The obligation under the U.S. Credit Risk Retention Rules to maintain a seller's interest at least equal to 5 per cent of the aggregate outstanding balance of the notes of all series is different from the requirement to maintain a Minimum Transferor Interest, and each is calculated differently.

Covid-19

In response to the ongoing Covid-19 situation in the UK, from 6 April 2020 credit card borrowers impacted financially by Covid-19 can request a payment holiday for up to three months with the option to extend for a further 3 months on expiry of the initial holiday. The payment holiday request initial deadline was 31 October 2020 and was subsequently extended to 31 March 2021. As at 30 November 2020 the trust included £51,690,584 (11,806 accounts) on active payment holidays. Customers on a payment holiday are not considered to be in a payment shortfall and as such will not be reported as delinquent. Payment holidays will reduce the revenue and principal received by the Trust, however, liquidity remains available through existing structural mechanisms and note principal payments are modest in the next 12 months. Notwithstanding this, Bank of Scotland will continue to monitor the Trust. More general information on the scheme can be found on the FCA website at:
