APPOINTMENT OF NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

As previously announced, Lloyds Banking Group plc ('the Group') has appointed António Horta-Osório to succeed Eric Daniels. António will join the Group early in 2011 and will take over as Chief Executive Officer on 1 March 2011.

António Horta-Osório has been Chief Executive Officer of Santander UK since 2006. He has led the successful expansion of the Santander Group in the UK through strong organic growth and the integration of the activities of Abbey, Alliance & Leicester and the Bradford & Bingley savings business.

Sir Win Bischoff, Chairman, Lloyds Banking Group said: "Mr António Horta-Osório stood out in an excellent shortlist of potential candidates for this position. We are delighted to have attracted someone with his experience in, and understanding of, the UK retail and commercial banking industry, as well as his track record in integrating three well respected UK retail banking franchises. António's drive, enthusiasm and commitment to customers along with his proven ability to build and lead strong management teams will be of significant value to all stakeholders of the Group. The Board and I look forward to working with him to ensure the success of the next stage of development of the Group."

Eric Daniels, Group Chief Executive, Lloyds Banking Group commented: "I am pleased that António has been appointed as my successor. I have known him for many years and admire the work he has done with Santander. I am confident that I will be leaving the Group in good hands with António and the talented wider leadership team."

António Horta-Osório said: "I am honoured to have been invited by the Board to undertake the challenge of leading Lloyds Banking Group.

"I am conscious of the vitally important role the Group plays in the UK's social and economic fabric. Lloyds is a key player in the UK economy and is instrumental in supporting the future growth and prosperity of the country. I am personally committed to ensuring the bank plays its part in lending to SMEs and supporting homeowners. To achieve this we will build on the Group's focus of delivering growth through strong customer relationships and the creation of innovative products and services.

"I look forward to working with the Board and the management team to move Lloyds into the next phase of its development and realise the full potential of this Group."
