LLOYDS BANKING GROUP ANNOUNCES SALE OF AUSTRALIAN OPERATIONS

Lloyds Banking Group plc ('the Group') announces today that it has agreed the sale of its Australian operations to Westpac Banking Corporation. These operations principally comprise Capital Finance Australia Limited (CFAL), a provider of motor and equipment asset finance, and BOS International (Australia) Limited, a corporate lending business. The consideration includes approximately AU$1.45 billion for the shares in the operations and approximately AU$0.1 billion for the market value of derivative contracts, resulting in total consideration of approximately AU$1.55 billion, or approximately £0.9 billion at current exchange rates, which will be payable in cash. In addition an AU$0.1 billion pre-completion distribution will be made by the Australian operations.

The sale is in line with the Group's strategy of focusing on the UK, rationalising its international presence and ensuring best value for shareholders. The sale will enable our country exit from Australia, which will be effected a short time after completion, although we will continue to support core UK-linked clients in Australia. The proceeds of the sale will be used for general corporate purposes.

The gross assets subject to the transaction are approximately AU$8.8 billion (£5.2 billion), and in the year to 31 December 2012 generated a profit before tax of £80 million. The sale of the operations is currently expected to lead to a gain on disposal of approximately £20 million. As a result of the sale, the Group will also write down a related deferred tax asset by approximately £350 million. As a result of this transaction we expect the Group's common equity core tier 1 capital ratio, on a pro forma fully loaded CRD IV basis, to increase by approximately 20 basis points (approximately £550 million capital equivalent), primarily driven by the reduction in risk weighted assets.

The transaction is expected to complete by the end of 2013.
