

KEIGHLEY

YORKSHIRE AND THE HUMBER

As the country's largest retail and commercial bank and insurance provider, we recognise our responsibility to stand by our customers, colleagues and communities over the course of the pandemic. Our scale means we have a relationship with three out of four households in your constituency, and plenty of data to help you better understand your constituents. To support your work we've pulled together some information about how people and businesses in Keighley have been responding to the coronavirus crisis.

Here's how the spending habits of Lloyds Banking Group's 27,307 personal banking customers in Keighley have changed over the course of the coronavirus crisis:

The public affairs team at Lloyds Banking Group is here to help you and your team help your constituents. We are on hand to:

- Keep you informed about what we're doing to support your constituents through this time of economic uncertainty.
- Hear your concerns and make sure they are understood by our senior leaders and local management teams.

- Introduce you to Lloyds Banking Group leaders in your area who can tell you more about what's going on in your constituency.
- Arrange for you to meet some of the small and medium sized business employers in your area who bank with us.

We would be glad to hear from you. Your local public affairs manager is Liz Delahaye, you can reach her at: Liz.Delahaye1@lloydsbanking.com
