* Offers to Exchange specifying Exchange Option 3 which were pro rated as a result of reaching the Maximum ECN New Issue Amount and which constitute Option 3 Residual Offers, have been applied to the ECA Priority in accordance with the ranking of the relative Existing Securities.

Offers to Exchange accepted pursuant to the ECA Priority

Lloyds Banking Group and the ECN Issuers have accepted in full all valid Offers to Exchange in respect of those Existing Securities which have amounts listed in the columns "ECA - Principal Amount/Liquidation Preference Accepted” and “ECA - Aggregate Exchange Consideration Amount” corresponding to such Existing Securities in the table above for the relevant Exchange Consideration Amount. If no amount is listed in the columns “ECA - Principal Amount/Liquidation Preference Accepted” and “ECA - Aggregate Exchange Consideration Amount” corresponding to any Existing Securities in the table above, the relevant Existing Securities will not be exchanged for the relevant Exchange Consideration Amount. The aggregate Exchange Consideration Amount will be equivalent to £1.48 billion (compared to a Maximum Exchange Consideration Amount of £1.5 billion).

A Holder will receive an Exchange Consideration Amount payable in New Shares and/or cash in an amount, per £1,000, €1,000, US$1,000 or ¥1,000 (as applicable) of its Existing Securities accepted for exchange pursuant to the ECA Priority, equal to the relevant Exchange Consideration Amount, as specified in Part III of the Non-US Exchange Offer Memorandum, or, in certain limited circumstances, Additional ECNs on a par-for-par basis.

The New Shares, cash and/or, in the applicable limited circumstances, the Additional ECNs, together with any Accrued Interest Payments and Accrued Dividends Payments in respect of Existing Securities accepted for exchange pursuant to the ECA Priority, are expected to be issued or paid (as the case may be) on the Late Settlement Date, being 18 February 2010. Lloyds Banking Group will, on or around 12 February 2010, announce, amongst others, the New Shares Price and whether Holders whose Offers to Exchange have been accepted for the relevant Exchange Consideration Amount, will receive New Shares, cash and/or in certain limited circumstances Additional ECNs, as more particularly set out in the Non-US Exchange Offer Memorandum.

Offers to Exchange accepted pursuant to the ECN Priority

Lloyds Banking Group and the ECN Issuers have accepted all valid Offers to Exchange in respect of the Existing Securities which have an amount listed in the column “ECNs - Principal Amount/Liquidation Preference Accepted and New Issue Amount” corresponding to such Existing Securities in the table above for ECNs. If no amount is listed in the column “ECNs - Principal Amount/Liquidation Preference Accepted and New Issue Amount” corresponding to any Existing Securities in the table above the relevant Existing Securities will not be exchanged for ECNs. The Lloyds TSB Bank plc £700,022,000 13.00 per cent. Sterling Step-up Perpetual Capital Securities (ISIN: XS0408620721) were accepted for exchange on a pro rata basis, as further detailed below. The aggregate principal amount of ECNs to be issued by the ECN Issuers will be equivalent to £6.99 billion (compared to the Maximum ECN New Issue Amount of £7.0 billion, which was increased from £5.5 billion by Lloyds Banking Group on 11 November 2009 following high levels of investor interest).

Save as noted immediately below, the ECNs are expected to be issued, and any Accrued Interest Payments and Accrued Dividends Payments in respect of Existing Securities accepted for exchange pursuant to the ECN Priority, are expected to be made, on the Early Settlement Date, being 1 December 2009.

Holders of Existing Securities held through CREST and who do not have access to a securities account with Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, and who will receive any ECNs to which they have become entitled in the form of CREST Depository Interests (“CDIs”) through CREST, may receive such ECNs and any Accrued Interest Payments or Accrued Dividends Payments after the Early Settlement Date, as noted in the announcement made by Lloyds Banking Group on 12 November 2009.

General

- Exchange Options 3 and 4: In accordance with the operation of the Exchange Priorities described in Appendix 3 to the Non-US Exchange Offer Memorandum, the ECA Priority was re-run in Step 3. Consequently (i) any Offers to Exchange Existing Securities specifying Exchange Option 4 which were not accepted pursuant to the ECA Priority did not participate in the ECN Priority; and (ii) any valid Offers to Exchange specifying Exchange Option 3 which were not accepted pursuant to the ECN Priority had the opportunity to participate in the ECA Priority.

- Scaling of Offers to Exchange: Save as specified in the following sentence, all Offers to Exchange which have been accepted were accepted in full and no scaling factor was applied when accepting such Offers to Exchange. Existing Securities accepted for exchange pursuant to the ECN Priority and belonging to the Lloyds TSB Bank plc £700,022,000 13.00 per cent. Sterling Step-up Perpetual Capital Securities (ISIN: XS0408620721) were scaled in the ECN Priority by a factor of 0.105338.
- Retail Participation in the Exchange Offer: The Group values the fact that it has one of the largest retail preference shareholder bases in the UK. It has sought to structure the Non-US Exchange Offer to enable the vast majority of such individuals to participate, including an amendment to the terms of the Non-US Exchange Offer to allow ECNs to settle through CREST in the form of CREST Depositary Interests, or “CDIs”, as announced by Lloyds Banking Group on 12 November 2009.
- Retail Holdings Offer: In addition to the above, and as mentioned in the Non-US Exchange Offer Memorandum, the Group intends to invite Eligible Retail Holders to participate in the Retail Holdings Offer. Subject to certain resolutions being passed at the General Meeting on 26 November 2009, the Group will write to each Eligible Retail Holder with details of this offer and of how to participate in it. The Group intends to write to such holders in the first half of December and for the offer to remain open until mid January to allow them sufficient time to participate.

This announcement and the Exchange Offer Memoranda contain important information which must be read carefully before any decision is made with respect to the respective Exchange Offers. If any Holder is in any doubt as to the action it should take, it is recommended to seek its own legal, tax, financial and accounting advice, including as to any tax consequences, from its stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant or other independent financial adviser. Any individual or company whose Existing Securities are held on its behalf by a broker, dealer, bank, custodian, trust company, or other nominee must contact such entity if it wishes to participate in the relevant Exchange Offer. None of the Dealer Managers, the Exchange Agents, the ECN Trustee, or any person who controls, or is a director, officer, employee or agent of such persons, or any affiliate of such persons, makes any recommendation as to whether Holders should participate in the Exchange Offers. No offer or invitation to acquire or exchange any securities is being made pursuant to this announcement. Neither this announcement nor the Exchange Offer Memoranda constitute an invitation to participate in the Exchange Offers in any jurisdiction in which, or to or from any person to or from whom, it is unlawful to make such invitation under applicable securities laws and offers of Existing Securities for exchange pursuant to the Exchange Offers will not be accepted from Holders in any jurisdiction where such invitation is unlawful.

The distribution of this announcement and the Exchange Offer Memoranda in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this announcement and/or the Exchange Offer Memoranda come are required by each of the ECN Issuers, Lloyds Banking Group, the Dealer Managers and the Exchange Agents to inform themselves about, and to observe, any such restrictions.

This announcement and the Exchange Offer Memoranda have been prepared on the basis that the Exchange Offers will either be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Directive, as implemented in Member States of the EEA, from the requirement to produce a prospectus for offers of the ECNs or (in the case of the Non-US Exchange Offer only) the relevant Exchange Consideration, or (in the case of the Non-US Exchange Offer only) by the use of the Non-US Exchange Offer Memorandum, as a prospectus approved by the UKLA and prepared in accordance with the Prospectus Directive and the Prospectus Rules made under section 73A of FSMA and passported to the EEA Permitted Jurisdictions. Accordingly, any person making or intending to make an Offer to Exchange pursuant to the Non-US Exchange Offer within the EEA should only do so in the EEA Permitted Jurisdictions using the Non-US Exchange Offer Memorandum, or, in any other EEA jurisdiction, in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the ECN Issuers, Lloyds Banking Group or any of the Dealer Managers to produce a prospectus for such offer.
