LLOYDS BANKING GROUP ANNOUNCES BOARD CHANGES

The Board of Lloyds Banking Group plc announces that Glen Moreno, its Deputy Chairman and Senior Independent Director intends not to seek re-election at the Annual General Meeting on 17 May 2012 and will retire from the board on that date.

Sir Winfried Bischoff, Chairman, said: "Glen has been an indefatigable champion of the shareholders of Lloyds and a constructive and informed voice in our deliberations on the Board. His contribution has been highly valued over the last two years and my colleagues and I will greatly miss his counsel."

Glen Moreno said: "I have been working on the fall-out from the banking crisis for more than three years now, first at UKFI and then at Lloyds. With a strong Board and a talented executive team in place at Lloyds, and the Group stabilised following the HBOS acquisition, it is time for me to move on. Lloyds has a robust and realistic long-term strategy to deliver what we all care deeply about: a safe and sound bank that serves its customers well and returns money to the UK taxpayer."

The Board has decided to appoint Anthony Watson, Chairman of the Remuneration Committee, as its Senior Independent Director and David Roberts, Chairman of the Risk Committee, as Deputy Chairman both with effect from 17 May 2012.

Sir Win said: "Tony comes with the background of former Chief Executive of one of the most prominent investment institutions in the country and a Board member of a number of major UK public companies and David with an extensive history of commercial and retail banking. Their experience will be of great benefit to the Board as we strive to deliver sound performance for our shareholders, customers and employees."
